SANDERS NOMINATES STEPHEN M. LAUB TO SERVE ON SAN DIEGO PLANNING COMMISSION

San Diego – Mayor Jerry Sanders has nominated Stephen M. Laub for appointment to the City of San Diego Planning Commission, subject to City Council approval.

Mr. Laub presently serves as the City of San Diego Chair of the Community Planners Committee (CPC) and is the principal and owner of Land Solutions, Inc. a real estate and community planning consultancy. Mr. Laub has demonstrated his commitment to the community planning process through his years of volunteer service on his local planning group and as an officer elected by his community planning peers on the CPC.

Prior to establishing his own firm, Mr. Laub worked for Wireless Facilities as a Planning Manager, at JM Consulting as Production Manager, and at Home Capital Development Group for eleven years as a project manager. It is also noteworthy that very early in Mr. Laub's planning career he served as an intern in the City of San Diego's Planning Department for two years.

Mr. Laub holds a Masters degree in City Planning from San Diego State University and a Bachelors degree in History from the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Among Mr. Laub's civic commitments, he serves as a board member and past President of the College Area Community Council, on the College Community Redevelopment Project Area Committee and as a member of the Urban Land Institute.

A native of Ohio, Mr. Laub has lived in San Diego since 1969 and presently resides in the City of La Mesa in the community of Lake Murray. He was a resident of the City of San Diego for 35 years and remains a property owner in the City of San Diego.
